Holy Spirit Emphasis Week

This Holy Spirit Emphasis Week, January 11-18, 2014 is entitled "The Fruit of the Spirit" and is based on Galatians 5: 22, 23. The Seventh-day Adventist Church is bombarded on every side by fleshly forces such as secularism, modernism, and liberalism. Natural means to withstand such challenges against the Church will be to no avail.

This is the reason why this special week is based on the spiritual disciplines that the Apostle Paul addressed to the Church in Galatia.

As a church organization and as individuals, we will be able to study and to mediate upon topics such as, The Power of Love, The Premium of Joy, the Prize of Peace, the Preciousness of Longsuffering, the Picture of Gentleness, the Promise of Goodness, the Product of Faith, the Process of Temperance.

Your commitment to this spiritual experience will guarantee tremendous benefits to the church family. Let us continue our quest for revival and reformation so that we can be ready, helping others to be prepared to meet our King in glory. Maranatha!

Kern Tobias, President, Caribbean Union Conference
